NOTE: To comply with Fayetteville Policies and Procedures 402.1, all persons hired as employees must submit to a criminal background and sex offender registry check.

Background checks will be conducted once a candidate becomes a finalist for a position. Unless prior completion of the check is required by law for the position, hiring units may make an offer of employment that is expressly conditioned on completion of a criminal background check, financial history check, substance abuse test, or a combination of these checks that is fully satisfactory in the sole discretion of the University.

Graduate assistants are not allowed to begin their assigned duties until the applicable background checks are complete.
